Staging

Shotgun staged on table. Rifle at port arms. Two pistols loaded with five rounds each and holstered.

John T. Chance: [Referring to Colorado] It's nice to see a smart kid for a change.

Stumpy: Yeah, he ain't like the usual kid with a gun.

Dude: Wonder if he's as good as Wheeler said?

John T. Chance: I'd say he is. I'd say he's so good, he doesn't feel he has to prove it.

Procedure

We need to sort out friend from foe. Shooter starts with rifle at port arms with at least one foot on starting mark. Shooter indicates ready by saying line “He doesn’t feel the need to prove it” At the beep, engage the buzzard targets in a continuous Nevada sweep from either direction with the rifle. Move and safely place open and empty rifle on the table. With pistols engage the rectangle targets in a continuous Nevada sweep from either direction. Holster and shoot shotgun knockdowns from either direction.
